Wednesday 17th January 2018

Dear Parents and Families,

Year 5 are going to be involved in a 4 day Art project with Julie Mitchell starting this Friday, it's a really exciting opportunity to create some permanent art work based on ethnic patterns from around the world, the children are really looking forward to it. The dates involved were included in last week's newsletter. The children will on these 4 days need to wear scruffs and these will need to be clothes you don't mind getting permanently marked as things like acrylic paint won't come out in the wash. The children do not need to wear their uniform. Thanks for your support with this!

Year 1 have a similar opportunity later in the term and the PTA have very kindly agreed to fund this opportunity, many thanks to PTA for their generous support.

Polite reminder that the Early Years School Screening forms need to be returned to school by Friday this week, ready for the School Nursing Team next Monday 22nd January.

We have been concerned as a staff team, to discover that some children are accessing social media sites that are not appropriate for their age. Some of our Year 5 children have Instagram accounts and are using Musical.ly and YouTube from home. I hope the attached document for parents is useful in raising awareness of how these children could be making themselves vulnerable.

Our Young Voices Choir are very excited to be making their debut next Tuesday at Manchester Arena. Thanks to Mrs Nuttall, our Music Lead, for organising this. Mrs Cade and I are both accompanying the children. We will be back to school late on Tuesday evening between 10.00 and 10.30 pm and if it's convenient for you to bring children in later on Wednesday that's fine – (please can all Choir members be in school by 11.25am at the latest). If this is not convenient then obviously attend as normal. Good luck to all our wonderful singers!

KS2 are looking forward to their Theatre Trip to watch Treasure Island next Thursday. Please refer to the Final Arrangements letter that was sent out last week for full details of the day's arrangements.
