Dear Parents and Families,

Our next PTA meeting is on Tuesday 23rd October at 6.00pm in school, please see agenda attached, along with a copy of the PTA's newsletter.

Don't forget to return your slip and payment for the Key Stage 1 Film Night next Thursday via the school office.

Our first Golden Tokens for lunch times have been counted and its congratulations to ILM (104 tokens) who dine at the Golden Table this Friday and 6CL (56) who will be eating their lunch at the Golden Table next Friday. Thank you to Miss Gallimore and her team of Middy assistants for continuing with this lovely reward for lunchtime etiquette.

Thank you for all the feedback from parents of children in Early Years who attended the Phonics Workshops.

A big thank you to our Year 6 Ambassadors for showing prospective parents around school on our recent Open Mornings, you were all very professional and a credit to our school!

Quotes from last week Re: Homework:-

I love guided reading we get challenged and I love challenges!

I love homework. I could do it every minute of every day. I love SPAG – I just love spellings.

I love homework, I love school because it makes me work better. What I love about it is when I do maths, it helps me work better.

Forest School

It is the turn of our Early Years children to take part in their Forest School session on Friday morning, please send your child into school with an appropriate (dependant on the weather) change of clothes, including a waterproof coat and footwear (old trainers/wellies) for their session.

Dates for Key Stage 1 Christmas Production – Christmas around the World

Wednesday 12th December

Thursday 13th December

Friday 14th December
